

Healing Within

An Online Structured 6-session Support Group for Suicide Loss Survivors

When you lose someone you love to suicide, the pain can feel unbearable.

But you don't have to navigate your pain alone.

Healing Within is a 6-session online structured support group for suicide loss survivors. It provides a safe and supportive space to share, learn, and heal alongside others who have similar experiences. Together, we'll explore ways to cope with grief and honour our loved ones while finding strength in community.
